FOOD & FUND DRIVE THEME IDEAS

A theme makes a Food & Fund Drive fun and builds excitement for participation

Challenges: Organize a contest between co-workers, departments. Give a prize to the team that collects the most food or raised the most money.

Skip a Meal Out: Encourage your colleagues or community to skip a meal out and donate the funds saved from the cost of the meal.

'MEAT' the Need: Gather high protein foods like beans, canned salmon, tuna or peanut butter.

Fill the Bag: Provide a bag with a list stapled to it for each employee, student, or church member (PACK THE PEWS!) to bring home to fill with non-perishable food items. Set a date for them to bring back.

Farm-to-Table: Your drive can focus on food items that are found in a garden or on a farm (beans, corn, chicken).

CAN-struction: Get creative and construct an object out of cans—vehicles, buildings, animals—adding to the structure as donations come in.

Special Dress Day: At work or in class, have students or employees “pay” to wear certain attire with non-perishable food items (casual dress, jean day, t-shirt day).

Dinner's Ready: Collect combinations of food that can be used to prepare a full dinner meal (ex: spaghetti noodles & sauce, beans, rice, salsa, taco shells, and Mexican seasonings).

Food Themed Days: Have participants bring in food donations to correspond with different food theme days. Such as: Macaroni Monday, Tuna Tuesday, Whole Grain Wednesday, Peanut Butter Thursday, Fruity Friday.
