Finding Life in the Land of Alzheimer's by Lauren Kessler

Please Join Us!

"There are many moments of grace and humor and deep compassion in Finding Life in the Land of Alzheimer's. There are also moments of frustration, pain, loss, delusion, fear, and exhaustion, and these are rendered as honestly and carefully as are the experiences of joy and connection.

Kessler gives us the whole picture of Alzheimer's, shattering any number of myths—about those who have the disease, their families, and those who care for them — along the way and replacing those misconceptions with all the depth, immediacy, and wisdom of lived experience."

The book club's meeting times and locations will be determined based on the preferences of book club members.
