FOOD ACCESS AND EQUITY

Family Pathways provides access to healthy food for families and individuals in crisis through 9 Food Shelves, a mobile food pantry, weekend food (Backpack) program for youth, and Doorstep Delivery - a program bringing food directly to housebound seniors.

"Times are very hard for my children and I right now, we are struggling like many people out there. Not having money for groceries is a scary thing when you have hungry kids to feed and I was going without some meals to make sure there was enough for them. Thanks to Family Pathways we don't have to worry about missing any meals now, thank you for that peace of mind"

AGING SERVICES

Aging Services helps older adults and their caregivers age well at home by providing homemaking services, caregiver support and consulting, and community education.

"I am so relieved that my mom and dad will be getting services as I was the only one left who could help," said a client's daughter who had been driving a long distance weekly to help her parents.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT SERVICES

Through advocacy, emergency shelter, and education, we partner to promote violence-free lives and break the cycle of abuse. Our Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Services include the Black Dog Hill Emergency Shelter, a 24-hour crisis hotline, community advocacy, criminal justice advocacy, and intervention programs.

"Breaking the cycle of abuse is difficult but with help I have been able to do that and give my kids the chance they deserve. Thank you for giving us the chance to finally feel safe ."

PARENTING TIME SERVICES

Family Pathways provides supervised and monitored parenting time to assure that children have safe contact with absent family members. This service is offered as a tool to assist families as they navigate difficult times and transitions.

"I was worried about everything and this is such a relief in so many ways - using your services is the best choice and I am so grateful they exist!"
